Croatian Telecom signed the Share Purchase Agreement on acquisition of PRO-PING d.o.o.

Croatian Telecom (Reuters: HT.ZA; Bloomberg: HT CZ), Croatia's leading telecommunications provider, announces that it has signed a Share Purchase Agreement on acquisition of 100 percent share in the company PRO-PING d.o.o., a regional broadband provider. Closing of this transaction is subject to regulatory approvals, and it is expected during 2026.

Headquartered in Pitomača, PRO-PING was founded in 2010 and provides broadband services through its fibre and wireless networks, with a focus on rural areas.

On 31 December 2025, PRO-PING served 17 thousand customers and had 17 employees. Revenues generated for the year 2025 amounted to EUR 3.5 million.
