New mandates of Management Board Members of Croatian Telecom

Croatian Telecom (Reuters: HT.ZA; Bloomberg: HT CZ), leading Croatian telecommunication company, hereby notifies that the Supervisory Board, at their session held today, appointed for the next term of office in the duration of three years, Matija Kovačević, as Management Board Member for Finance, Marijana Bačić as Management Board Member for Business Customers, Siniša Đuranović, as Management Board Member for Corporate Affairs, and Boris Drilo, as Management Board Member for Technical and Information functions.

“In a very demanding business surrounding, Croatian Telecom continually demonstrates that it is the leading telecom in Croatia for a reason. Under the leadership of this Management Board, HT made significant business, technological, organizational, and transformational steps forward which are reflected in business growth, introduction of innovations, best customer experience, strengthened best network and telecom brand status, as well as being the partner of trust for private and business customers. Having in mind HTs’ achievements and the passion and dedication of the team leading the company by continuous improvements, I believe HT shall continue raising the bar and setting new industry standards, while being the market leader dedicated at creating value for its customers and partners”, stated Elvira Gonzalez Sevilla, Chairwoman of the Supervisory Board of Croatian Telecom.

The President of the Management Board, Nataša Rapačić, concluded: „I am proud of everything we accomplished together, and I am happy to continue collaborating with my colleagues from the Management Board, who are professionals and leaders in the full sense of these words. I am thankful to the Supervisory Board for the appointments of all four Management Board Members, whose mandates expire at different times during this year, by a single decision, thereby showing confidence, both in the Management Board, and at the direction in which we are steering this company. By further increasing customer experience and satisfaction, to which we are fully dedicated, we also continue our work on ensuring the most quality work environment and satisfaction of HT employees, thanks to whom we as a company achieve results and create value to all our stakeholders and the society in which we operate.”
